About the Artist

William Riley Leitch is a Chicago area trombonist. Riley has performed at the Nief Norf Festival, soundSCAPE Festival, and the Lucerne Festival Academy where he studied with members of Ensemble Intercontemporain and Ensemble Modern. Riley has premiered over 20 new works for solo trombone, chamber ensemble, and orchestra at events and venues such as Ear Taxi Festival and RED NOTE New Music Festival. He is a founding member of Origin Brass, a brass quintet focused on commissioning new music and working with beginning composers. He holds degrees from Illinois State University (BM) and DePaul University (MM).
